

Portland, Oregon
(971)-226-6001
zoe.uhlig@gmail.com

Zoe Uhlig (she/her)

Education

University of Oregon - Bachelor's Degree (Theatre Arts)

Experience

Seamstress - US Linen and Uniform

February 2026 - present

- In charge of identifying, sorting, and repairing damaged garments, replacing when necessary
- Sort and distribute clean garments
- Ensure garment identification tags are in good condition, updated, and accurately entered in the computer system
- Assist production team with preparation of outgoing linens

Craftsperson/Customer Service - AR Workshop

August 2024 - April 2026

- Instruct and assist customers with various crafts
- Answer the phone and respond to customer questions and requests
- Make handcrafted beverages like custom coffees and sodas
- Open and Close shop

Stitcher - UO Theatre Department costume production shop

September 2022 - June 2025

- Costumed shows produced by the university theatre program throughout the school year
- Duties included garment patterning, cutting, construction, and tailoring, as well as wig styling and costume crafts such as hat making
- Received training through "skill projects" used to bolster costume stock and experiment with new patterns
- Assisted students with assignments and projects
- My work has been seen in university productions like She Kills Monsters by Qui Nguyen, Hay Fever by Noël Coward, and Twelfth Night

Assistant Director - She Kills Monsters by Qui Nguyen

(UO Theatre production directed by Malek Najjar, fall 2022)

- Worked alongside the director, attending production meetings, coaching actors, and running rehearsals when needed
- Served as a dramaturg for the play's Dungeons and Dragons related content

Skills

Problem solving, attention to detail, textual analysis. Proficient in sewing pattern drafting, draping, garment construction, tailoring, garment design, and many assorted crafts including embroidery and weaving.